

Podcasts by keynote speakers and Underwriters, pertinent to the themes and topics of the Uptime Institute Symposium, are an important aspect of the Symposium's mission of knowledge-sharing and education. Symposium Delegates are encouraged to listen to these podcasts in preparation for meaningful conversations during the Symposium.

Dr. Albert Esser, on behalf of Dell, and Deborah Grove discuss potential power savings and Dell's latest Total Data Center Efficiency metrics.